GYLA believes that the staff policy announced and implemented by the broadcasting company Rustavi 2 is discriminatory. Paata Salia, the CEO of the TV Company, has fired Nodar Meladze, head of the newsroom and is planning to dismiss Eka Kvesitadze and several other journalists once they return from the leave. Although Rustavi 2 has not terminated the employment contract with Eka Kvesitadze, she is unreasonably restricted the right to receive her salary. In her application, Eka Kvesitadze requests to establish the fact of discrimination on the ground of her dissenting views, which is manifested in the non-payment of her remuneration at this
